Every home should have one

Royal dining

If you're looking for something a bit different around the dining-room table this Christmas, why not invest in these arresting Philippe Starck Louis Ghost Chairs from www.postmoderndesigns.co.uk?

The company stocks a range of design-led furniture, making it a one-stop shop for those who are after truly original pieces. Reinventing the classic Louis XVI armchair, the playful Louis Ghost is a post-modern triumph of technical innovation and historical style. Translating the ornate lines and formal geometry of its royal predecessor into a single form of injection-moulded polycarbonate has made the chair robust enough to withstand the excesses of many rowdy dinners. It comes in translucent, black or white. But it doesn't just look good. With its generously sized seat, medallion back rest and subtly curved arms, the chair is comfortable, too.

Postmodern Designs is offering four clear chairs for £469 instead of the usual £580. Stackable, hardwearing and stylish, this is too good to miss. To claim your discount, telephone 020 7404 0100 quoting 'EHSO' before November 30 (www.postmoderndesigns.co.uk).
